The Footsteps Christine Isabelle Rasmussen

Christine and her family emerge on their annual camping trip along with all of their friends. At first, the camping trip is like any other normal one, until tensions start to arise. The break out of a fight leads to Christine having to choose sides between her best friend and her own mother. That night, the girls are put into a life-or-death situation that brings everyone together again. This story is filled with tons of laughs, drama, thrill, horror, and family fun.
