Bittersweet Snapshots of an Affair with a Married Man Skylar Stone

Hold on to your thongs ladies, this is no soap opera love affair. In Bittersweet Snapshots of an Affair with a Married Man, author Skylar Stone brings to life a sultry tale of passion and longing in this hotter than hot novel.

VERONICA

Veronica is a woman in love. She follows her heart and believes that she only has one shot at life and love. She's not a rebel but believes in free will and is truly a free spirit. She has experienced hard situations in her life, earlier and more than most would experience in a lifetime. She loves that she is feminine and is not one for idle words. She is highly selective in her partner choices, but when she loves, it is unconditionally. She is passion personified.

BRUCE

Bruce is every woman's dream husband. He cooks. He bakes. He follows the schedule. He is an excellent provider. He obeys. And while he never shirks his responsibilities, his heart reminds his head that it is there too. Buried deep down is his pulsing desire to be a free spirit. He aches to release the passion he harbors, especially since he has tasted it. But he fears it as well. He is routine-comfortable and passion explosive.

THE DWARF

The Dwarf is every suburban princess or princess wannabe. She shops and uses religion as her hiding place for evil. She uses her sisterhood as a charming way to fool her husband's consciousness into guilt and to gain more family credit chargeability. She went to college to never work. She had children as a guarantee that her lifestyle would not stop and her closets would bulge. She pretends to volunteer as long as she doesn't have to physically enter the world of the needy. She is authoritative and demanding and gains her strength from tradition. She runs in packs. She is the matriarch of the mansion and demands a maid. She is power and passionately ignorant. She believes her marriage is perfect and her husband is ever faithful. She is the stereotypical desperate housewife. She's married to Bruce.

Part of Stone's genius is to capture Veronica and Bruce's romance by letting it unfold in a series of blistering snapshots, all giving a brutal, heart-wrenching intimacy to this fine, fast-paced novel. We see, candidly and intimately, the very ebb and flow of Bruce and Veronica's love affair, even as their passion threatens to engulf them. Smart and seductive, with truths powerful enough to break your heart, Stone has written a romance for anyone who has ever felt the craziness and drama of love in its myriad extremes.
