Senior citizens with fascinating stories to tell pass away every day, their stories lost to future generations. In 2014 concerned members of a respected writers club decided to teach local high school students the basics of memoir writing and asked that younger generation to interview their elders so that they could capture those vanishing legends. "All Our Yesterdays: A Collection of Memoir Stories," is the second in a planned series of books of the Dorothy C. Blakely Memoir Project, conducted by the High Desert Branch of the California Writers Club.
