Victoria Alkaeva just wants to be normal but fate, and the universe, has other plans.

Welcome to the Universal Retrieval Company. Home to the best, and only, retrieval agents in the universe. The mission is simple. Retrieve the stolen dagger and return it to its owner. Easy. Or it would be if the entire universe was not conspiring against her. Her two handsome teammates are only complicating the situation.

Because the true trouble does not start until the mission is complete. Dealing with her latent powers, a universe full of alien creatures, and a growing fascination with her teammates, Victoria has to decide if she is URC material. If, of course, they manage to get out of their current predicament alive.
