Brown Bear, White Bear Svetlana Petrovic

Alice got two teddy bears as gifts from her grandmas. One bear was white and the other was brown. / Except for their colors, the bears were exactly the same. / Alice loved both of her bears, and didn't really pay much attention when her grandmas argued over which one was her favorite. But when the bears start fighting to see who she likes best, Alice is forced to take drastic action. / This charming story of competition and cooperation features two naughty but endearing bears, and a little girl who loves them both very much.
