Meet Emily Davidson. She has just begun her second year at college, and is having the time of her life. Her goal is to live life to the fullest, and she is out looking for adventure. Then she meets him. The sexy Ian Winters is a man covered in a shroud of mystery that appeals to Emily's sense of adventure. They take things to a heated level, the chemistry between them explosive. Mornings after are usually filled with regret, but in Emily's case it was an awful revelation that Ian breaks to her – she had a lump in her breast. Is it cancer? Or a fake alarm?

The journey of Emily and Ian is going to be a bumpy one. What journey is considered fun if there are no bumps, after all?
