You've probably come across a number of people who have been in terrible marriages. Most of these marriages ended in divorce and no matter how much you sympathize with them, you're moving to have to accept the fact that some marriages don't really work. Unfortunately, because of the rising rate of divorce, it becomes hard for many people to believe that this kind of commitment can actually last.

There's an ample amount of research about love and matrimony. In this book, I will concentrate on giving you essential information on how your marriage can work based on your love language.

If you're having a rocky marriage, love language can pave the way to fixing it. If you're having a great one, love language is going to keep it that way.
