The Last War (Book #9 of the Sage Saga) Julius St. Clair

Three beautiful and dangerous lands have clashed, and the result is all-out war between them. There is Paragon - a living and breathing paradise. Terra - a cold and brutal land where the strong survive and the weak are forgotten. And Cimmerian - a warrior's Valhalla, where the bold and the courageous unite through their fire song to overcome any opponent.

James Alters, a man burdened by his past, seeks to end the war in order to keep his family and friends alive, but with violence and destruction on all sides, that might be easier said than done. Kyran struggles with the decision of whether to stop a friend in cold blood or leave him to harm others. Chloe overcomes the trauma of her run-in with Gideon, and Bastion must defend the place he has finally learned to call home.

With the war reaching new heights, the fate of humanity lies in the hands of a few. Solon or Sage, human or god...none of these titles matter when the end of the world has arrived.
