Debbie" "Dear Debbie, I have believed since I knew you as a child that you are a very special person, and that those good qualities within you will unfold and grow as you grow older, and that you will be able to be and to do especially good things, especially for children and perhaps also for animals. But I should not like to talk about these things too much lest I frighten them away. Yet now I feel our friendship is deep enough that I can feel free to say whatever I wish - I hope you feel the same way. Dr. Pullias"
