Getting Beyond I Like the Book : Creating Space for Critical Literacy in K-6 Classrooms (second edition) draws you into life in classrooms where students and teachers together use critical literacy as a framework for taking on local and global issues like racism and gender using books and everyday texts such as school posters and advertisements.

This expanded second edition includes the following features

Two additional content areas chapters science and social studies to emphasize that critical literacy is not just a part of the literacy curriculum

A new chapter on new technologies such as websites, videos, and podcasts and their impact on critical literacy

A fresh focus interspersed throughout the book on multimedia literacy and using multimedia text

In addition, reflection questions at the end of each chapter can help you connect the ideas in this book with your experiences.

The International Reading Association is the world's premier organization of literacy professionals. Our titles promote reading by providing professional development to continuously advance the quality of literacy instruction and research.

Research-based, classroom-tested, and peer-reviewed, IRA titles are among the highest quality tools that help literacy professionals do their jobs better.
