Social networking, on-demand programming, and media streaming have changed the way couples and kids relate, react and worship. Can we keep daily family devotionals in “our” loop? Faith and FAMILY: A Devotional Pathway for Families brings mom and dad, sister and brother together for a small dose of God’s Word and wisdom.

Each devotion includes a story or situation dealing with a contemporary issue, forcing families to think and discuss how they would react to a particular situation. Questions are included at the conclusion of each devotion to help spur discussion and encourage families to pray together. These short slices of personal testimony offer instant inspiration and thoughtful reflection, making this book the perfect “addition” to any family.
