Sentinels: Wolf Hunt (Sentinels series Book 3) Doranna Durgin

A majestic wolf prowls the halls of power, protecting his pack of shape-shifters from those who would harm them.

But a wolf is not meant to hunt alone...

Nick Carter hides his wildness under expensive suits, but nothing can lessen the impact of what he is: alpha wolf. He leads his region's Sentinels, a duty he takes seriously. He is cautious, ready for anything—except Jet. The first time he sees the black-haired, golden-eyed beauty he recognizes a shape-shifter like himself—but like no Sentinel he has seen before.

Jet has been trained by the Sentinels' dark counterparts for one mission: to take down Nick Carter. If she succeeds, her pack will be freed. If she fails... But the moment she meets the man with pale green eyes, she recognizes a kindred spirit, a male to match the wild nature of her soul. Together, they could be amazing....

But if they do not betray each other, the people they are supposed to protect will die.
