Though hell is probably not your everyday dinner topic, it slips itself into conversation at a moment's notice, such as, "What the hell," "go to hell" or "it was hell," but does anybody really know what hell is? The images that most often pop into our minds are a goaty-looking red guy sporting horns and a devilish grin all while poking sinners with a pitchfork, or perhaps an ocean of fire brimming with the tormented wicked. Is either of these images right? What does the Bible really say about hell? The answers to these questions will probably both surprise you and make God's judgment, mercy and grace more magnificent than ever. A Beautiful Hell...perhaps like you've never seen it before.
