That We May Perfectly Love the Robert Benson, R. Benson

That We May Perfectly Love Thee is an invitation to a deeper, more meaningful experience of that which is central to Christian worship: the Eucharist. Robert Benson writes as a fellow worshiper, one who sits in the pews alongside others and contemplates the mystery of the sacrament. He explores the centuries-old tradition of the Eucharist service, and, most importantly, suggests how the celebration of the Eucharist holds meaning for our lives as individuals, as worshipping communities, and as the universal church.
