Worried that his once sexually charged marriage is showing signs of slowing down, pharmaceutical salesman Don Bennett takes his real estate broker wife Lola to a private estate on the Pacific Coast for their fifth year wedding anniversary. Unbeknownst by Lola, Don secretly signs her up for a sexual training program with a very captivating world renowned dominant named Raymond. When Don sees his wife go through this submissive training and all that it truly entails, he starts to feel guilty. Don is assured by the medical professional running this unusual therapy program that when Lola completes it, both of them will experience levels of unimaginable bliss in their exciting new world of BDSM. Don could never have imagined the unforeseen consequences that come into play as he and Lola settle into their new home and dominant/submissive lifestyle. The freshly liberated Lola seems to be inadvertently chipping away some of the control Don once had. Deep down inside, he knows he is responsible for creating this so very complicated situation. Will their loving soul mate marriage survive the decisions that he is now forced into making on their behalf?
