What Hurts The Most? II Tynessa

When Kacey shows up at Tangela's doorstep unexpectedly, it leaves her in a dilemma that she never anticipated. To make matters worse, it was right after Quintez had just confessed his love for her. The feelings are mutual, but deep down she feels Kacey still holds the key to her heart. Let's just see how forgiving Kacey will be once he finds out what Tangela has been up to while he was incarcerated. Will Quintez find happiness with the woman that has captured his heart in a short period of time or will Kacey be willing to put up a fight for the woman that was supposed to hold him down no matter what? Nobody's perfect! Those are the words Jay'vion needs for Asia to understand. Now that she has moved on, all she wants is for him to realize it's over between them, but those aren't the words Jay'vion wants to hear. He is determined to get his woman back by any means—all the while, he continues to flaunt his sidepiece around. Will Asia continue to stand her ground or will she fall under Jay'vion's spell once again? The bigger question is, will Jay'vion be willing to leave Stacy alone once and for all?
