Julia A. J. Foote became a popular addition to the canon of women preachers when William Andrews included her autobiography, A Brand Plucked from the Fire: An Autobiographical Sketch, in his collection Sisters of the Spirit in 1986. The telling of Foote's life generally ends with the conclusion of her book in 1879. The rest of her life story has remained a mystery, though her ministry continued until shortly before her death. The reconstruction of Foote's life was possible by retracing the itinerant footsteps of Foote.
