THE LOVER OF YOUR SOUL DEEPLY DESIRES TO ROMANCE YOU

Once you have fallen in love with Jesus, once you have looked in His eyes and danced in His arms, you no longer care what others think. Once you have laughed together, shared a personal joke, and caught His eye across the room, you are lost to reason. You walk in a cocoon of His love and protection that nothing can enter. Life becomes just you and Him, even in a crowd.

I have seen Him, held Him, felt Him, eaten with Him, and laughed with Him, but it is never enough. I attempt to share some of it with you so that I can show you what is possible in Him and how He desires you.

Jesus is calling us out of our mundane lives into a living Romance, the Love Story to end all love stories. He is gently wooing us, singing love songs to us, and whispering our name.

- It serves as a model of what you are learning by its generous sprinkling of examples and experiences. Reading this book will help you welcome Holy Spirit's tutoring, for only through Him can you go deeper in love and enter into the King's bedchamber. Once there, earthly things lose their appeal because your heart is held in the hands of your Beloved. Wherever you go and whatever you do, your eyes are locked on His. Your heart sings your Beloved's name. Anywhere or anytime, you can close your eyes and be lost in Jesus. You can run with Him on the spice-laden mountains, dance in His arms to His love songs, and be His hands to the hurting and broken. You can taste of His love in His inner chamber and walk with Him in His secret place. You will enjoy His garden of delights and find His fruit sweet to your taste. Jesus wants a bride that knows Him intimately, who will fling herself into His embrace with joyful abandon and throw her arms around His neck. I want each bride to see that she can have true love and intimacy while still here on earth. This book should move you to hunger for more love, more adventure, and most of all, more of the presence of the Wild Romancer.
