Most people have months or weeks to mull over making big decisions. Kendra has a few hours only.

This could be a game changer. Her entire life is about to take a new turn and the pressure is overwhelming. Can she do it?

The ambiguity of her relationship with Jax is killing her. The baby has stolen her heart immediately, but can she let her new boss do the same, only to break it after he's done with her?

Meanwhile, Jax starts the painful, but necessary process of grieving. His quest for answers will lead him down a path of danger where no one is safe.

Note: this is the second book out of five in the series. Contains explicit language for a mature audience only.
