Book One

Nelly is a pregnant pollute smuggler who uses her husband's powerful connections to freely move illegal contraband between America and Mexico. She's also an acquaintance of Meme Lamar.

Once Meme learns that he's been targeted, he makes plans with Nelly to hightail it to Mexico. With a top mercenary tracking him, and his unique ability to place himself in situations that are impossible to escape from, will Meme and Nelly make it to safety in time?

Book Two

Rinchi becomes a MercSecure representative and is given her first big assignment, the assassination of a Mexican drug kingpin. On the run from the Federal Corporate Government, Meme and Yeshi make their way to Tokyo, Japan. In an attempt to protect Meme, Yeshi meets with a weapons dealer named Hajime, who offers her more than she bargained for.

Book Three

Meme seeks revenge in Japan and later Mexico, where he is contacted by someone he assumes has been dead for years. Rinchi continues her role as a MercSecure representative, starting first in Baghdad, where she runs into an old foe. Desiring more control over the destiny of the nation, Sauria goes to extreme lengths to intimidate a rival and solidify his power.

Book Four

Meme and company are off to Cuba only to be greeted by a team of MercSecure representatives. Not one to be intimidated, BlurYou founder Bill Bleak hosts a press conference revealing the extent of the Gene X program, a joint project funded by the FCG and Sauria's two companies seeking to bridge the gap between human and Humandroid. While dealing with pirates off the coast of Somalia, Keva receives a message that compels her to fly halfway around the world for a rescue mission.

Yeshi versus Rinchi. Sauria versus Bleak. The FCG versus Anonymous. Meme versus himself.

Life is a Beautiful Thing offers a shocking glimpse into a dark future fueled by corporate deceit and designer intoxicants. Part dystopian science fiction, part hallucinatory thrill ride, this ground-breaking series will keep you on the edge of your seat to the very end.
