Conversations With God for Parents: Sharing the Messages with Children (Conversations With Humanity) Neale Donald Walsch, Laurie Lankins Farley, Emily A. Filmore

From the very first months after the first Conversations with God book was published in May, 1995, the demand began to appear for tools that would assist parents in teaching the marvelous concepts of this extraordinary dialogue to children. Conversations with God for Parents is a response to that request. In it, Neale joined with Laurie Lankins Farley and Emily Filmore, the directors of the School of the New Spirituality, to write a parenting book to awaken parents to the everyday life principles and practices of new thought parenting.

They wanted to make available for parents not only the tools for teaching and parenting through CWG's concepts, but a narrative summary of the concepts themselves. They knew this special articulation for parents would form the backbone of their spiritual home and guide their parenting efforts. This book will also assist parents, should they decide to use the other tools being created by our School with maximum effectiveness. This 384 page book for parents is not a workbook -- it is an unique and inspiring parenting book, with content that will help parents guide their children through the core concepts from the 3,000 pages of Conversations with God, strengthening the next generation and reminding children Who They Really Are. Each chapter is presented in two parts: (1) A narrataive for parents that includes background information and interpretative commentary on the spiritual concepts being explored; and (2)Tools with which parents may effectively share these concepts with their children. Together they form a powerful tool for the spiritual parents of the 21st century,
